Behind the Scenes

Quiet, unassuming, and ever faithful to G. G. is Mrs. Bertha Collins to whom the 1950 Argonaut is dedicated. "Ma," as she is commonly known, is seen every day around the campus doing her job of keeping the classrooms clean.

As custodian she has served behind the scenes continuously since 1924. Many school events were made successful because of her work behind the scenes.

In appreciation for the great and unselfish service she has rendered, the class of 1950 respectfully dedicates this year's Argonaut to Mrs. Bertha Collins.

Ring Masters

DR. LEROY L. DOIG

"Every day a circus day." What a slogan for a school. Comedy, glamour, clamour and action all the time.

Pity the poor teacher. Pity everyone after a day or two. Once a year, once a decade circuses are wonderful.

An invasion of the circus spirit into the school? Of color, expertness and showmanship? By all means. In moderation and infrequently.

Big Top

Presiding within the "Big Top" are Miss Pauline Steres . . . Harold Reynolds . . . Jack Schumaker. They have a big job to do. "Mr. Reynolds, how much time make-up do I have?" . . . "Pauline, would you make an announcement, please?" . . . "Jack, can I go home?" They keep the circus records straight, they do it without a slip . . . all runs smoothly under the "Big Top."

Clowns

Top Billing

To Lowell Catlin goes the honor of being the most worthy boy Argonaut of the 1950 class. Lowell was chosen principally on the basis of his high attitude rating.

Throughout his high school life he participated in numerous sports. He also was active in dramatics. Lowell well merits this honor.

A high attitude rating and active participation warrant Carolyn Fury to be the most worthy girl Argonaut of the 1950 class.

During her Junior year as president of the Girls' League and editor of the Argolog, Carolyn was a most diligent worker. In her Senior year she assumed full responsibility as assistant editor of the Argonaut. Also throughout her school life dramatics and sports took much of her time.

Carolyn indeed well deserves this great honor.

Rough Necks

Starting with a blaze of glory the Argonaut gridders defeated Anaheim to the tune of 13-6. The next week they came back to lose a heartbreaker to Orange High, a powerhouse in the Sunset League. From this beginning the Argos went on to register two verdicts over Puente and Valencia, 21-6, and 20-6 respectively.

It was in the Valencia fracas that Garden Grove lost the services of their star fullback, Bob Umphress, due to injury. Umphress, Johnny Borrego, and Darrel Leath were also out of action. Thus the Argos were seriously handicapped for the rest of the season. Unable to muster the final drive of a championship team, the gridders wound up in fourth place, dropping close decisions to Tustin, the League champions, and to Brea. However, G. G. turned the tables against Capo 18-0, but lost to Laguna.

Bob Archer was the lone Argonaut to represent Garden Grove on the first string all-League team. Other outstanding players were Jim Matsunaga, Don Stroud, Don Maurer, and Ray Ramirez.

Bee Football

Sporting a record to be proud of, Coach Don Kennedy's "Bee" squad brought home their first championship. The team seemed to find themselves after losing their first two opening games. Then sparked by the stellar running and passing of Nobe Kitada, who operated from quarterback on their new T-formation, they then began to click. In League play they were undefeated.

Some of the outstanding players were Jack Elder, Bob Carson, Dick Green, Cliff O'Hern, Bill Phillips, Jim Hollenbeck, and Ted Kitada. Congratulations to you boys and to the rest of the team members for a job well done.

Hail the Champs—

The Varsity, led by the able coaching of Don Kennedy, swept the Orange League—taking the first basketball championship in G. G.'s history. Starting slow with 3 losses in 7 practice games, the Argonaut quintet settled down to win all 10 League games—including 2 heart-stopping 1 point wins over Valencia. The Argonauts won 1 game and lost 2 games in the C.I.F. playoffs.

John Borrego, Nobe Kitada, Ray Ramirez and Bob Archer were placed on the All Orange League team. Archer also set a new League scoring record of 170 points in 10 games and was chosen on the All C.I.F. second team. Congratulations, boys.

BEE BASKETBALL

Bill Phillips, Dick Green, Jim Pecor, Jack Dales, Marshall Van der Linde, Jun Nishino, Darryl Holt, Bob Rylance, Jack Elder, John Duchart, George Hamlin, Jack Kraushaar, Coach Don Kennedy.

Bee—

Coach Don Kennedy's Bee's were not as fortunate as the varsity in their season—winning only 4 out of their 10 league games. Top scoring honors went to Center Jack Elder who led in their victories over Tustin, Capo, and Valencia.

Cee and Dee—

The second Basketball Championship came in the Cee division with Blanchard Beatty as coach. The team won all 5 league games—losing only 3 of their 4 practice games. Gary Davidson was the top scorer.

Lacking experience and material, Coach Blanchard Beatty's Dee's had a poor season—winning 2 out of 5 of their league games. They wound up in fourth place in League competition.

Speed Demons—

Garden Grove's varsity "jinx busters" finally broke the three-year Laguna Beach strangle hold on varsity track competition. The Argonauts scored 59½ points to Laguna's 52½ in the Orange League finals, while the other schools trailed far behind. This brought to a climax one of the greatest seasons in recent years.

New school records were set by Ray Ramirez, in the quarter mile, and the relay combination of Bob Umphres, Richard Applebury, Ray Ramirez, and Burns Srigley. Outstanding performances were turned in by Bob Umphress and Burns Srigley, sprints and broad jump; Adolph Maya, mile; and Don Stroud, pole vault.

TENNIS TEAM

Stellar Performers—

"Pop" Eidelson's tennis team appeared to have championship material . . . led by such stellar performers as Bob Wylie, Pat Lewis and Felix Martinez . . . great amount of depth . . . poised for their league season . . . after competing in a few pre-season matches with large schools, they broke even in the win and loss column.

Bee and Cee Track—

Endeavoring to win the varsity championship, Coach Don Kennedy used some of his Bee standouts. Thus weakening the squad, the middle class spikeesters could not do better than to place second to Tustin who won the Bee crown with 46 points. Garden Grove scored 21½ points.

However, plenty of talent graced their ranks and for next year with such performers as Jack Elder, John Duchart, Jack Mitchell and Bob Carson, who tied the Bee high hurdle mark, prospects are far from gloomy.

The Argo Cee squad, led by Vernon Maxwell and Charley Neal, wound up in third spot. Final scores in that division were Laguna Beach 35¾, Capistrano 24, Garden Grove 19¼, Valencia 12, Tustin 7, Brea-Olinda 0.
